

EP.002 · KOREAN BBQ

Okay... or No Thanks?

WHAT LUCY WANTED
the free ice cream

MAYA

후식으로 아이스크림
드릴까요?

Ice cream for dessert?

LUCY

괜찮아요~!

No, thanks~! (she meant "sure!")

WHAT LUCY GOT
no ice cream

When someone offers you something, 괜찮아요 means "No, thanks." Not "okay."

Which answer?

They offer, you decide. Read the plan, say your answer out loud, then circle A or B.

1 You don't need an apron.

앞치마 드릴까요? An apron?

- (A) 네, 주세요. (B) 아니요, 괜찮아요.

2 Lucy offers Jiho more kimchi.

김치 줄까? More kimchi?

Jiho: 괜찮아.

What does Jiho mean?

- (A) No, thanks. (B) Okay, give me more.

3 Free ice cream for dessert! You want it.

아이스크림 드릴까요? Some ice cream?

- (A) 아니요, 괜찮아요. (B) 네, 주세요.

4 You said no... now you want it. Call the staff.

(A) 아이스크림 드릴까요?

(B) 저기요, 아이스크림 주세요.

Write it.

Trace the grey line: each block top to bottom, left to right. Then cover it with your hand and write it once from memory.

A No, thank you.

Someone offers something you don't need.

아	니	요	,	괜	찮	아	요	.

B Excuse me — ice cream, please.

You said no... but now you want it.

저	기	요	,	아	이	스	크	림		주	세	요	.

Fold, cover, say.

3 Say it without looking.

Fold the page on the dotted line so only the English shows. Say the Korean out loud, then unfold and check.
